Overview

---

What is a 5G base station?

The goal of 5G networks is to achieve ultra-low latency (as low as 1 ms) and large-scale device connections (up to a million devices per square kilometer). Base station chips must support high-density small cell deployments, meet the massive device access demand, and emphasize high processing speeds and scheduling capability.

What are 5G base station chips?

5G base station chips play a critical role in the construction of 5G networks. As technology continues to advance, base station chips will demonstrate higher performance and provide support for the comprehensive coverage of 5G networks. At the same time, the market demand for these chips creates new development opportunities for related industries.

How can a 5G base station be optimized?

This article proposes an optimization approach for the deployment of 5G base stations. Initially, a continuous wave (CW) test is conducted in the planned area to acquire drive test data. These data, along with the least squares method, are utilized to calibrate the signal propagation model.

How 5G mobile communication technology is affecting the network capacity?

With the rapid development of 5G mobile communication technology, the number of 5G users has significantly increased, leading to a corresponding expansion in network capacity . To meet the growing user demand, researchers have begun to focus on improving the throughput of base stations (e.g. Refs. [2, 3]).
