

Serbia exports new energy storage lithium batteries

Overview

Why did Serbia and the EU sign a lithium mining deal?

Serbia and the EU struck a deal to develop a lithium mining project, securing a crucial supply for producing electric batteries.

Will Serbia's lithium exports go to the EU?

According to Vučić, Serbia's lithium exports will go exclusively to the EU for now, despite strong Chinese interest. Serbia has been trying to join the EU since 2012, but tensions with Kosovo have delayed this. Until recently, European institutions, media and NGO's depicted Vučić as an authoritarian ruler.

Where are LFP batteries made in Serbia?

Serbian battery developer ElevenEs is finalising a project for the construction of a mega factory that will produce Lithium Iron Phosphate (LFP) batteries in the country's northern city of Subotica, CEO Nemanja Mikac told SeeNews.

What happened to Serbia's lithium extraction operation?

After all, it does have headquarters in Melbourne as well as London. And Serbia's prime minister, Ana Brnabic, announced the demise of the much-trumpeted lithium extraction operation just days after her counterpart in Australia cheered the deportation of Serbia's sporting icon.
