What is PET solar panel?

PET Solar Panel means that the top layer of encapsulated material is PET film, which is a plastic film with a light transmittance of about 85%. Its surface can look shiny without any treatment, and if it is sprayed with a layer of frosted, it will look matte and a little rough to the touch.

Why is PET film Bad for solar panels?

1. Long-term exposure to the outdoors will make the PET film hard, brittle, and discolored, reducing the light transmittance of the solar panel, and at the same time, it can't well protect the PV cells inside to avoid oxidation and corrosion.

Do glassless solar cells use PET films?

PET films offer excellent electrical insulation and optical transmittance, making them a suitable material for the front-side cover sheet of solar cell modules and reducing the overall module weight. In this study, we investigated the reliability of glassless modules that use PET films as the front cover material.

What does a PET solar panel look like?

Its surface can look shiny without any treatment, and if it is sprayed with a layer of frosted, it will look matte and a little rough to the touch. PET solar panels are customized products with small sizes or low power output.
